

Camp Code of Conduct

Frontier Camp works hard to create a fun, adventurous, and wholesome community that fosters Godly growth, respect, and unity among campers and staff. However, we can't do that all by ourselves. We need the full faith and cooperation of each camper and parent/guardian to make the camp week a great experience for everyone concerned.

Our ministry has always taken the protection of our campers very seriously. We follow a Child Protection Plan which takes a 360-degree approach to camper safety. That circle of protection starts with you - both the parent and the camper. Parents, it is important to read and discuss the following information carefully with your camper(s). We require all campers and their parents/guardians to thoroughly read, understand, and abide by our code of conduct outlined below.

CODE OF CONDUCT

At Frontier Camp we will always respect each other:

- I will obey counselors, activity leaders, and camp staff at all times.
- I will not be part of any form of bullying: physical, verbal, or relational. No hitting, kicking, slapping, or punching. There is no tickling or touching of private areas (this includes slapping someone on the rear). Frontier Camp reserves the right to apply appropriate disciplinary action based on the severity of a camper's bullying.
- I understand that physical contact (hand holding, kissing, etc.) with the opposite gender is not allowed (hanging out together in a group in public is okay).
- Everyone sleeps in their own bed, and there is no sharing of shower or bathroom stalls. We always cover up private areas in the presence of others, even of the same gender.
- I understand that for my safety it is important for a counselor to know my whereabouts at all times. I will not leave my cabin after lights out unless there is an emergency.
- I will not at any time be in possession of tobacco, drugs, vapes, e-cigarettes, alcohol, explicit materials, or any illegal substances or activities.
- I understand that to assist in creating a camp community involving interacting with my cabin mates and gaining independence, I will not bring a cell phone, smart watch, iPod, tablet, GoPro/action or other digital camera, or other personal electronics to camp. Frontier Camp is not responsible for the replacement of damaged/missing items and has the right to take these items up if found, as they are not allowed at camp.
- I will not damage Frontier Camp property or the property of others (no writing on bunks, damaging trees, etc.).

At Frontier Camp we will always use appropriate verbal communication:

- I understand that profanity and vulgarity (including talk of tobacco, drugs, vapes, e-cigarettes, alcohol, explicit materials or any illegal substances or activities) have no place at camp.
- I will not lie, nor will I gossip about other campers or staff.
- I will not call anyone names, even jokingly. I will not talk about another's physical body.

At Frontier Camp the campers have the right:

- To have privacy when in private areas (e.g. bathroom, shower).
- To tell someone when feeling uneasy about ANY situation.
- To be taken seriously and to be treated with respect.

At Frontier Camp we have a dress code that we understand and agree to abide by:

- No halter tops, low cut clothing, or clothing exposing the midriff.
- No spaghetti strap shirts. Shirts may not be low cut around the sleeves or neck. No part of a bra can show, including sports bras.
- No excessively tight clothing. (Leggings may be worn only if the shirt/dress is at fingertip length and covers the backside.)
- No clothing advertising alcohol or displaying vulgar, racial, or “gray area” language or inferences.
- Shorts must be modest and extend at least to middle of the thigh. Shorts must have an inseam of at least 3 inches. Shorts and pants must be secured and worn around waist. Underwear may not show. No graphics or lettering on the seat.
- No shorts or pants with holes or rips above the knee that expose skin.
- Modest swimsuits only.
 - For girls, this includes one piece swimsuits. (No tied halters, tankinis, monokinis, low cut suits, or suits that expose the midriff area.)
 - For boys, no speedo-style swim briefs.

These dress code policies help Frontier Camp create the best camping experience for everyone.

Frontier Camp reserves the right to use discretion to ensure all campers are modestly dressed.

Our Staffers are required to abide by the same code of conduct, with these additions:

- No camper is to be taken off by themselves.
- One-on-one counseling or private conversations are to be conducted in public settings (seen but not necessarily heard).
- No particular favoritism or gifts of a personal nature are to be given to any camper.
- Hold other staff accountable to the code of conduct.

Finally, please understand that the consequences of not abiding by any of the code of conduct outlined above may result in immediate dismissal from camp. Campers may be dismissed from camp for any conduct that negatively affects the camp experience for another camper or reflects unfavorably on Frontier Camp.
